

117 N Jefferson is a brick and timber historic office building in the West Loop.

The Haymarket Building is a tribute to the participants and martyrs of the Haymarket Affair in 1886. The nearby Haymarket Square Farmers' Market was once a gathering place for workers and families. The Building is now steps away from the moving and historic Haymarket Memorial.

Featuring:

- Plentiful natural light
- Sky-high ceilings
- Near the Clinton Pink & Green Line CTA station
- Steps from Ogilvie and Union Stations
- Walking distance to the trendy Fulton Market District
- Near French Market, Little Goat Diner, Au Cheval, Haymarket Pub, Whole Foods, and more.

