158 W Erie is a three-story historic brick building, built in 1884 during Chicago's post-Fire era, that originally served as a neighborhood fire station.

The building is near Red, Brown, and Purple L stations, numerous bus lines, and multiple parking facilities.

Its prime River North location is surrounded by a wide range of restaurants and entertainment venues, and a plethora of office buildings and hotels, making it a highly connected, vibrant, and affluent area.

Exterior signage and build-to-suit available. Basement storage available for $575/month
